Understand what characteristics of the culture were similar to other cultures.

8th Grade American History

After the creation of the United States Constitution, the new nation faced domestic and foreign challenges. Students will learn how the early presidents secured peace both within the nation and the world. As the nation expanded, a new American identity was developed, uniting the country. The North and South became more distinct because of their differing economies. Economic and cultural differences eventually led to sectionalism. By 1850, the United States had taken its place on the world stage, with a burgeoning population, strong economy backed by both industrial and agricultural growth, and a large land area from the Atlantic to the Pacific.
